

Modulbeschreibungsraster gemäß RStPO (Englische Fassung)

Module Name	AWE Becoming a Global Graduate
Modul Coordinator	Michael Ferenc
Semester	Winter and Summer
Duration	One Semester
Status	Extracurricular Subject
Module Frequency	Every Semester
ECTS Credits	2
Taught Contact Time (weekly hours per semester)	2 Hours Contact Time per Week (2 SWS)
Learning Outcomes and Competences	Students acquire: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- basic knowledge of international work placement market in a variety of sectors with an emphasis on the creative one</li> <li>- basic knowledge of global graduate employment trends</li> <li>- basic knowledge of intercultural standards in the workplace</li> <li>- skill to compose CVs suited to accepted standards of national job markets</li> <li>- skill to prepare a job/work placement application addressing specific requirements of national job markets</li> <li>- knowledge on marketing oneself as a placement/job candidate using a variety of online tools</li> <li>- basic knowledge how to make a speculative job application</li> <li>- basic knowledge of existing funding mechanisms for work or study placements in Europe and beyond</li> </ul> The course also offers a field trip to a multinational company in the creative sector located in Berlin.
Level	English at B2/C1 level required
Obligatory Prerequisite Modules	None
Recommended Prerequisite Modules	CV preparation workshop/session
Examination Type	Final project submission
Examination Grading	Pass/Fail
Associated Units	None
Module Applicability	None
Recognised Modules	None
Further Information	Recommended reading: Hofstede, G. (2001) "Culture's Consequences: comparing values, behaviors, institutions, and organizations across nations." McSweeney, B. (2002) "Hofstede's Identification of National Cultural Differences – A Triumph of Faith a Failure of Analysis, Human Relations."